

Marta's Boutique

For stylish, fashionable and sophisticated clothing, the place to shop is Marta's in Ellisville. Owner Marta Gaska opened her original boutique in 1981 and in 2006, expanded to a new location a few doors down. High standards of customer service and fashion expertise keep her clients coming back.

"We have outstanding personal service," said Tania Rakel, Gaska's daughter and Marta's store manager. "Our staff is comprised of the most amazing and stylish women who are personal shoppers and love putting together a client's outfit in just one stop. We want all our customers to look their best when they leave."

Marta's truly is a one-stop shop for unique clothes, shoes, handbags, jewelry and accessories. There are pieces for work, play and parties.

As Gaska put it, "Marta's is an intimate expression of what every woman's closet should contain. You can walk in our store at the last minute and leave ready to go to a party." Alterations are made right on the premises.

Featuring more than 50 designers with new arrivals weekly, Marta's has something for all ages and body types. Gaska and her daughters take several buying trips yearly, finding the best fashions from around the world.

"We listen to our customers' needs and buy what we think they would like," Rakel said. "We take into consideration which styles will best flatter our clients."

On February 29, Marta's is hosting a trunk show featuring Canadian designer Joseph Ribkoff, so clients can preview spring and summer styles and get a head start on the season by placing early orders. In July, Marta's annual tent sale features sensational items at 90 percent off regular prices.

How is that for fashion sense?
